Dr. Philip Ian P. Padilla

Vision for myself: A bridging leader who is practicing participatory governance in finding solutions for complex problems and making a difference in people's lives (students, faculty, REPS, staff, larger community)

Vision for UPV constituency: They are active participants and co-owners of the UPV mission and vision who will journey with me towards fulfilling them.

Vision for UPV: UPV that is resilient, participative, efficient, and promotes inclusive and sustainable national development.

Leadership style: Facilitating change by breaking molds and empowering others to bring out their full potential

“Wanting to lead and believing that you can lead are only the departure points on the path to leadership. Leadership is an art, a performing art. And in the art of leadership, the artist's instrument is the self. The mastery of the art of leadership comes from the mastery of the self. Ultimately, leadership development is a process of self-development.” –James Kouzes and Barry Posner, the leadership challenge
